

PALM BEACH SUITS OF PERFECTION
$16.75
Every new pattern—new model and cut.
Henry's Worth or Money Back
D. J. Kaufman
1005-7 Pa. Ave.
616 17th St.

PROGRAM OF HIKES FOR RED TRIANGLE

Y. M. C. A. Club Will Tramp Through Woods of Congress Heights Tomorrow.

The Red Triangle Outing club of the Y. M. C. A. has arranged an interesting itinerary for the remainder of June, starting tomorrow with a five-mile hike through the woods near Congress Heights. Wednesday, June 16, the members will go to the terminus of the Wisconsin avenue car line and will take a moonlight hike through the woods. June 17, the club will go to Norfolk, Va., and will visit Newport News, Old Point Comfort, Fort Monroe, Ocean View and Virginia beach. They expect to spend three days in this manner. Those who do not make the Virginia trip will be from John bridge to the Rockville car line, a distance of five miles. Wednesday, June 22, there will be a moonlight walk from Four Mile run on the Alexandria car line; Sunday, June 26, the hike will be from Great Falls and on June 2 the club will go to Harpers Ferry, remaining in the vicinity of that historical place until the night of July 4.

Chiropractic
Swedish massage, electrotherapy and hydrotherapy; regular and post graduate courses; diploma granted.
COLUMBIA CHIROPRACTIC INSTITUTE
1750 M St. N.W.

LOCAL MENTION.
TRY STAG—$1 UP
SPECIAL WEEKLY. BEST IN CITY.

CLAFIN OPTICAL CO.
907 F Street N. W.

Itched Till Almost Crazy

"For years my hands were almost raw. Itched so bad I was almost crazy. Suffered day and night. Used all kinds of medicine and no relief. Lost all hopes of ever being cured until I got a trial bottle of D. D. D. Results were great. I got a large bottle and am now and will always praise D. D. D."
—ROBERT K. HOLMES, Manassas, Va.

D. D. D.
The Lotion for Skin Disease
People's Drug Stores

LOANS
MORNING
Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry
South End of Highway Bridge

ROOF LEAK?
We make your old roof like new and water-tight for years. Small cost. Expert service.
EXPERT ROOF CO., 2100 H St. N.W.

DANCE
You Can Learn at the
Rightway School of Dancing
1218 New York Ave.
Private Lessons 10 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Go to Baltimore by Water
A cool, comfortable, enjoyable cruise on the Federal Express. Chesapeake Bay; 58 hours each way; sailing from Washington, Seventh Street Wharf, Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, 5 p. m., and from Baltimore same days 8 p. m. Call Main 745 for stateroom reservations.

COUNTRY BOARD
Our list of hotels and boarding houses will interest you if you are seeking a place to spend all or part of the summer. Good, clean, comfortable, and reasonably priced. Write for our copy to:
R. H. Schaefer, G. F. A. R. C. & A. & M. D., 1005-7 Pa. Ave., Baltimore, Md.

OLD-FASHIONED HERBS
The Herb is a vegetable product; has no bad effect upon the system, purifies the blood, tones the system, relieves the kidneys, relieves Bright's disease, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, coughs and colds.
SUPER-SAXON BLUETON regulates the entire system, enriches and strengthens the blood, thereby eradicating all skin diseases.
M. A. LOUIS & SONS
Treatment for all various ailments.
The Herb Specialist
225 G STREET N. W.

NEW FRATERNAL ORDER FORMED AT ALEXANDRIA

Order of Red Deer Organized for Business Men.

THE HERALD BUREAU.
A. S. Douglas, 127 King Street.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 11.—Alexandria lodge, Royal Order of Red Deer, a new order here, was formed last night. The following are the officers-elect: A. Sidney Makin, ruler; J. William May, second lecturer; W. E. Sullivan, secretary; J. Kent White, inner guard; Dr. C. A. Amos, leader; F. C. Wyne, first aide; W. L. Rammel, lecturer; R. L. Lippe, past ruler; J. W. Wyne, treasurer; Dr. O. B. Ryder, chairman of trustees; Dr. T. E. Cochran, wiseman; M. D. Reese, guide; J. H. Newell, second guide.

This fraternal and social order was formed last year in Jacksonville, Fla. It is to be composed entirely of business and professional men. Instructions were issued today to the police by Mayor Duncan to arrest all owners of motor vehicles who have failed to take out city license tags, beginning at 7 o'clock Monday morning.

A delegation of 110 members of Memorial, Ohio, lodge of Knights Templar, of which lodge President Harding is a member, today visited the Masonic temple, where the relics were explained to them by George W. Zachary, tiler. Dinner was served at the temple by the women of Martha Washington chapter, No. 42, Order of Eastern Star. The Ohioans afterward made a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon.

Members of the senior class of the high school at 8 o'clock tomorrow night will attend services at the M. E. church south and a baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by the Rev. E. V. Rogers, D. D., pastor. The public is invited.

The members of the Henry K. Field Bible class of that church will assemble at 9:45 o'clock tomorrow morning and at 11 o'clock will attend the services. The Sunday school and home department will meet at 10:30 o'clock and at 11 o'clock the annual Sunday school day exercises will be held in the auditorium.

Mount Vernon chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, yesterday afternoon at the residence of Miss Helen Calvert, Mount Auburn, Arlington county, elected the following delegates to the state convention to be held in Roanoke in October: Mrs. C. W. Wattle, Miss Helen C. Calvert, Mrs. J. Stewart Jamieson, Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard was chosen chaplain.

The Masons and Odd Fellows of this city will cross back next Thursday afternoon on Baggett's field for the benefit of the Salvation Army appeal. "Nick" Altkrock, of the Washington baseball team, will umpire the game. This will be the first time these teams have played and some fun is anticipated.

ROCKVILLE

ROCKVILLE, Md., June 11.—The closing exercises of the Sandy Spring high school were held in the assembly hall at the school last evening. Prof. D. W. Powers, principal, was in charge. Addresses to the graduates were given by Dr. George H. Reavis, assistant state superintendent of schools, and the program included essays, musical selections and other features. The graduates were Margaret Eleanor Brown, Mary Virginia Carroll, Maud Howard Williams, Dalton Edgar Erwin, Joseph Elliott Janney and Marshall Nichols.

Mrs. Nettie I. Andrews, of this county, has filed suit in the circuit court here for an absolute divorce from Joseph Andrews, who is understood to be a resident of Pittsburgh. The bill charges desertion. Mrs. Andrews asks the custody of their two children.

At the closing exercises of the high school at Fairland, E. E. Schwab, principal, this county, graduating diplomas were presented to Maria A. Santine, Mary E. Hobbs, Annie M. Miles, Mabelle Downs, Catherine E. Harding, Maud W. Johnson, Delma L. Bryan and Viola R. Rich. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Walter Adams, Odell R. Woby and Wilson G. Johnson.

Upon pleading guilty in police court here to a charge of disorderly conduct, William H. Boggs, a young Washingtonian, was fined $10 and costs by Justice William E. Viett. Boggs was arrested at Glen Echo park by Deputy Sheriff Stanley Gilling.

Rev. O. C. Barnes, pastor of the Christian church, officiated at the marriage here this afternoon of Miss Fern Slader, of East Tallessee, Ala., and Frank Winstead, of Washington.

Franklin T. Boswell, of Glen Echo, a deputy sheriff and constable, appeared before Judge William E. Viett in police court here today and gave bond in the sum of $100 in each of five cases instituted against him by Walter D. Dresser, James G. Morris, Louis J. Bender, Earle E. Frederick and Alphonse F. Lent, who claim that they were being afraid Boswell would do them bodily harm, and asked him to be bound over to keep the peace.

Abemarle County Fair Association Is Incorporated

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 11.—Representative citizens of the city and county have organized a county fair association and steps are being taken to have an exhibition the coming fall, at which all the interests and products of Abemarle county will be represented. Racing will be a feature.

The name of the incorporation selected is the Abemarle County Fair association and the capital stock is $50,000. The following officers and directors have been elected: Frank Y. Hall, president; Thomas L. Rosser, Jr., Miss Bonnie Dunn, Mrs. John F. Payne and J. Anderson Chisholm, vice-presidents; W. Conway, treasurer; H. M. Hawthorne, secretary and general manager.

OLD DOMINION CLUB BUYS FERRY SLIP

Modern Boat Clubhouse Soon To Be Erected at Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 11.—The Old Dominion Boat club soon will begin the work of remodeling the old ferry wharf at the foot of King street and converting it into a modern clubhouse, and it will be used as quarters for the club. A deed for this property today was recorded in the office of the clerk of the corporation court, transferring the property from the Norfolk and Washington Boatboat company to George D. Hopkins and other trustees of the Old Dominion Boat club.

The Old Dominion Boat club membership has grown steadily during the past few years and the present quarters, located on the river front south of Duke street, are deemed inadequate. It is expected that before another month plans will be drawn and the contract awarded for the remodeling of the old ferry slip by this club. The Old Dominion has one of the largest memberships of any boat club in this section. Its racing crews have made records in the various events pulled off in this section during the past few years.

Prince Georges County.

BLADENBURG, Md., June 11.—A beautiful wedding took place this evening in St. John's Episcopal church, Sixteenth and H streets northwest, Washington, when Miss Mary Eliza Harrison, of Fairfax, Va., became the bride of Lieut. Edmund DuVal Duckett, son of Marion Duckett, of this place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. S. Dunlap, rector of the church, in the presence of a large gathering. The bride was given in marriage by her sister, Mrs. R. K. Webster, matron of honor. The maid of honor was Miss Jennie LeMay, niece of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Olga Young, Miss Gladys Jackson, Miss Sidney Morton, and Miss G. Augusta Duckett. The best man was T. Howard Duckett. The flower girl was Miss Josephine Duckett.

BOWIE, Md., June 11.—Robert H. Smith, Harry Hart Sansbury and Charles Gading, have just been elected town commissioners to serve one year. Women participating in a town election for the first time, displayed keen interest. Several members of the fair were unsuccessful candidates for nomination to the board.

Announcement has been made of the marriage June 1 of Mrs. Alice Hickman and Bernard Maenner both of this place in Accotink church here. They will live at Lloyd's station.

CLINTON, Md., June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dray have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Hazel Cleo, to Robert Merle Hardy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hardy, of this place. The wedding will take place on June 15 in Mount Olive chch, Washington Courthouse, Ohio, the home of the bride-elect's parents.

GREAT FALLS PLAN REJECTED BY CONFEREES

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
will be made of the Tyler report, of time changing conditions, prices, the manner in which the conclusions were reached, qualifications of the experts to pass upon the difficult questions of engineering involved and the emergency of the plant.

Question Minimum Flow.
Among some there are misgivings as to whether the flow of the Potomac is sufficiently constant to justify the enormous construction costs. The question of a series of dams or reservoirs that would govern the high water torrents or the sluggish periods is one of serious reflection since the springing up of the controversy over the Leaving plan.

Held on Bigamy Charge.
Charged by police with having two wives both living, James Anderson Butler, colored, 35 years old, 234 Fifteenth street northwest, was arrested by Detective Sgt. Patrick O'Brien and is being held for bigamy. Records show that Butler married Jennie V. Collins in August 31, 1914, and that on February 26, 1920, he took as his second wife, Blanche Bell.

Greeks to Observe Day.
Greeks of Washington will attend special services at noon today in the St. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox church, Sixth and C southwest, in memory of Constantine Balaeologos, the last Greek emperor, who fell while defending Constantinople against the Turks in 1453 and of other Greek lovers of liberty. Alexander Vouras, minister of Greece in the United States, with all the staff of the legation and other notables, will be present.

HOKE SMITH HEADS BELMONT COMPANY IN RELATIVITY CIRCLES

New Organization Announces Plans for Modern Theater Building.

Men prominent in Washington's financial and business circles are among the personnel and officers of the recently formed Belmont Building company, the list of which was announced yesterday by the Allan E. Walker investment company. The theater, which is to start the erection of a large movie theater and stores at the corner of Florida avenue and Fourteenth street north-west, has as its officers former Senator Hoke Smith, president; William H. Sholes, vice president; William L. Browning, treasurer, and David S. Hendrick, secretary. The directors include Charles E. Berry, William L. Browning, W. H. Chittell, C. T. Clagett, William H. Gottlieb, Sidney E. Kent, C. T. Kingsbury, Austin M. Knight, Harry C. Moses, William H. Sholes, Hoke Smith, John Lewis Smith, E. H. Snyder and Allan E. Walker.

Theater Will Cost $500,000.
The theater contains 25,000 square feet, with a frontage of 240 feet on Fourteenth street and a depth of 125 feet. The structure when completed will represent an expenditure of nearly $500,000.

The theater will be known as the "Belmont." It will have a seating capacity of 3,750 with entrance on Fourteenth street. The auditorium will be 150 feet long with screen at the south end. Eight large boxes will be located midway from the screen. Spacious aisles will make for convenient entrance and exit. A large reception lobby connects with the auditorium, and is equipped with an artistically decorated skylight. Waiting rooms, smoking rooms and the smoking rooms will be entered from the reception lobby. There will be an exit leading to Fourteenth street as well as emergency exits on the east side. One of the interior features will be a 30-foot stage which will answer all of the requirements for vaudeville and regular plays.

Particular stress is laid upon the perfect heating and cooling systems, to be installed which will include the very latest improvements known to engineers in theater ventilation. The theater will have three-color lighting effects similar to those in use in the newest New York playhouses.

Nine large store rooms, with attractive one-story fronts and facing on Fourteenth street, comprise another important feature of the building. The store at the intersection of Fourteenth street and Florida avenue, will have a double doorway at the corner. The building and theater were designed by Robert P. Berkeford with Thomas W. Lamb, prominent New York theater architect, as consulting architect. Erection of the theater and stores will mark the occupancy of the last bit of available space on Fourteenth street in this vicinity.

Located in the heart of the District, containing many large apartment buildings, and an unusual density of population, the theater is expected to fill an essential need of the community. The theater will be operated by the Belmont Building company.

CRYPT IN CAPITOL URGED FOR SOLDIER

That the body of an unknown soldier who died of the battle-lie and was reposed in the crypt in the Capitol, which was originally intended to hold the remains of Washington, is to be held in honor of a committee of George Washington post, No. 1, American Legion convention. The adoption of the resolution was urged before the convention of the legion in Indianapolis Tuesday.

The committee of the local post composed of E. Lester Jones, Kenneth A. McRae and J. Bentley Mulford. The selection of the Capitol for this purpose, declares the committee, would add dignity and impressiveness to the burial of the French unknown, and the burial of the Arc de Triomphe and the burial of the English unknown dead in Westminster Abbey and would commend and interest the selection of a site in the National cemetery.

St. Cecilia's Art Exhibit Includes Wide Variety
Art exhibits of the pupils at St. Cecilia's academy, consisting of a large variety of work in china, ware, oil and water color paintings, mark one of the most successful years in the history of the academy.

Among contributors: Messdames Moore, Shugrue, Melick, Tappan, Huberman and Cave and Misses L. Maler, M. Long, G. Buck, M. Purdy, D. Swan, H. Sullivan, R. Kinny, N. Nevitt, V. McGulgan, R. Kelly, B. McPherson, E. Dugan, F. Howe, D. Abbott, A. Whitty, G. Wagner, L. Winkler, M. Parsons, M. Porter, P. Franey, E. Kerby, M. Kirby and G. Gordon.

Woman Accused of Cutting.
During an altercation at her home, 625 Springman court southwest, police say Mary Davis, colored, 34 years old, slashed her former lover, H. B. Brown, colored, 23 years old, 920 Fourth street southwest, with a knife over the left thigh. Brown was rushed to the Emergency hospital where 25 stitches were required to close the wound. The address of the assailant was given by Detective Sergeants Bradley and Keck.

Held for Throwing Lamp.
Julia Porter, colored, was held for the grand jury yesterday by Judge McMahon on police report of $1,500 bond on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon in connection with the alleged throwing of a lighted kerosene lamp at Emma Carter, colored, of 1515 E. Street northwest, on March 2. The Porter woman, the police allege, hurled the lamp at her opponent, saturating her clothing with the oil and causing very burns about the head and back.

What Congress Did Yesterday.

SENATE.
Proceedings of June 11. In recess until Monday.
HOUSE.
Met at 11 a. m. and adjourned at 6:15 p. m. until 11 a. m. Monday. Adopted conference report on deficiency appropriation bill. began consideration of the Forster police resolution.

Joint Resolutions Introduced.
Strong, Kansas—Providing for the employment of a "discovery" or invention called "discovery" patent, making available the utilization of free energy.
Lampert, Wisconsin—To increase the force and salaries in the patent office.
Longworth, Ohio—To postpone the increase in the rates of postage effective July 1, 1921, on publications entered as second-class matter and to provide for an investigation of postal routes and postal rates on publications entered as second-class matter.

U. OF MD. CONDUCTS CLOSING EXERCISES

Secretary Wallace Delivers Address to Graduates.
COLLEGE PARK, Md., June 11.—In addressing the large graduating class of the University of Maryland here today, Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace laid stress upon the great extension of agriculture during the last 50 years of history.

"The farmer needs all the training in production the colleges can give him," he declared, "but the most urgent need now is the development of an entirely new realm of organized knowledge of the economic factors which will enable him to improve his production." The procession of candidates for degrees and certificates, officials of the university, the secretary of agriculture, all wearing caps and gowns, headed by the chief marshal, Prof. L. B. Broughton, from the library building into the auditorium, was an impressive feature of the ceremonies.

The exercises were opened with a selection by the university band, followed by the invocation by Rev. A. A. Matzen, pastor of St. Mary's Presbyterian church. The university glee club sang, directed by Dr. House, head of the department of music. An address was delivered by Charles W. Collins, of Baltimore county, of the graduating class, and the university women's octette sang a selection following the address of Secretary Wallace the glee club sang "The Flag Without a Stain," by White and Miss Veda Ellis, appropriately gowned and carrying Old Glory, appeared on the stage, while the audience arose and cheered lustily.

President Woods then conferred the certificates and degrees.

What's Going On Today

Baseball—Washington vs. Cleveland Indians, American league park, 2:30 p. m. Baccalaureate services—Georgetown university, 10 a. m. Meeting—Padric R. Pearce council, American association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, Gonsaga hall, 451 street northwest, 8 p. m. Meeting—Padric R. Pearce branch of the Friends of Irish Freedom, 423 G street northwest, 8 p. m. Hike—Wanderlusters, Wisconsin and Massachusetts avenues, 2:30 p. m. Convention—College of Heart Shirts, Sixteenth and Park road, 4 p. m. Meeting—George Washington council of the American association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, National Capital bank, 8:00 p. m.

TRIAL FOR ALLEGED SEEKING OF BRIBE

Max S. Johnson, a tailor, and one of the jurors in the trial of the $500,000 alienation suit of David W. Sullivan against John T. Davis, who was indicted by the grand jury for the alleged seeking of a bribe of $25,000 from David W. Sullivan, the jury in his favor, will be placed on trial tomorrow in criminal court before Chief Justice Walter L. McCoy. The arrest of Johnson on February 14 last, after he is alleged to have approached a detective in the employ of Davis and sought the bribe, caused a mistrial. Sullivan lost out at the second trial, the new jury bringing in a verdict for Davis, who was accused of living on the proceeds of the alleged bribe, the wife, Mrs. Anna Marie Sullivan.

Accused of False Pretense.

While trying to pass a $20 check at a G street department store, police say, Paul Carroll Dodge, 28 years old, 1004 E street northwest, was accused by Detective Sgt. Patrick O'Brien. It later developed that Dodge had passed six checks to local business men drawn on a bank in Petersburg, Va. All checks were returned "no funds." Dodge is charged with false pretense.

Wreck on B. & O.

A broken wheel on one car of a B. and O. Washington-bound train resulted in a wreck early yesterday morning at Watson's cut just east of Laurel, Md., which smashed fifteen cars, thirteen of which were loaded with coal. No one was injured. All traffic was detained. This line had not been cleared late last night.

Lineberger to Speak.

Plans for Victoria park's Fourth of July parade, the first event of this kind in the annals of the Washington suburb, are being rapidly completed. Representative Walter F. Lineberger, of California, will deliver the address of the day. Mayor James L. Wilmeth will act as chief marshal of the parade and Jesse C. Suter, president of the Takoma Park Citizens' Association, will supervise the civic events.

ENGLANDER
PRODUCTIONS FOR SLEEP AND REST

Don't buy just a bed—Buy the Three-Piece Bed made by ENGLANDER

BUY a bed that is without equal for comfort and service—a bed that is of matchless convenience and absolute sanitation. ENGLANDER Three-Piece Beds, in canvas or wood finishes, are equipped with the exclusive "W-Edge" Spring that holds the mattress in place and shape and prevents slipping.

When you buy a SPRING buy it by name—ENGLANDER

ALL springs are not alike. Any kind of a bed spring will not do. ENGLANDER Springs are the only springs made with the "W-Edge" side guards that keep the mattress in place and shape, and prevents slipping or sagging. They are absolutely sanitary. They invite perfect sleep.

Why the Da-Bed You Buy Should be an ENGLANDER

LOOKING for the trade mark "ENGLANDER" on L da-beds is as important as looking for the brand mark on gold. ENGLANDER Da-Beds render a double service—as a comfortable, attractive da-bed and as a regular bed for sleep. These da-beds are made in single or double beds with wood or metal ends and link fabric spring. Absolutely sanitary.

ENGLANDER "Productions for Sleep and Rest"
Couch Beds, Three Piece Beds, Foldaway Beds, Canvas and Wood, Couch Hammocks, Divans.
Sold Everywhere by Furniture Dealers and Department Stores. Write for illustrated booklet.

ENGLANDER SPRING BED CO.
New York Chicago Brooklyn
Look for this trade mark

ENGLANDER
PRODUCTIONS FOR SLEEP AND REST

Out of the High Rent District.

National Furniture Co.

807 7th St. N. W. 633-635 H St. N. W.

The Store That Saves You Money.
The Greater Hub Furniture Co.
Seventh and D Streets.

The Hecht Co.

Where Prices Are Guaranteed.
Seventh and F.

PALAIS ROYAL

A. Lisner. G and Eleventh Sts.

Herald Want Adds Bring Results